

Resources

When writing this book I originally was going to create a resources section at the back of the book, but the more I thought about it, the more I realised that there are so many good resources out there that are constantly evolving, that I simply would not be able to cover them all and do a reasonable job simply writing them in the book. Instead I have created the webpage:

www.zjayres.com/phdresources

which has an up to date list of resources available to you, with submissions from individuals from around the world going through a similar experience to you. If you know of a resource that other PhD students may benefit from that is not on the list, please do get in touch! This will be an ever evolving webpage, curated by me, informed by the PhD community.
